News&Notes Garcia in Familiar Territory

All Sergio Garcia needed to become more comfortable on the golf course again was to visit THE PLAYERS Stadium Course with a familiar putter.

Garcia, 28, captured the firstround lead in the 35th PLAYERS Championship on Thursday with a 6-under par 66. It was the Spaniard's third consecutive excellent round on the Pete Dye-designed course. He finished second to Phil Mickelson last year, shooting 67-66 to complete that tournament. In those last three rounds, Garcia has totaled 22 birdies, three bogeys and a double bogey. The double came on the 18th hole in last year's third round.

"I guess it just fits my eye," Garcia said of TPC Sawgrass. "Another course I really like is Valderrama (in Spain), and it has some similar looks to it with the tree line and some of the greens and undulations. I guess that's probably one of the reasons."

Another motivation for Garcia is an increasing confidence in his putter. He experimented with various lengths of putters and grips and even used two putters in his bag over the last few years since the last of his six PGA TOUR victories at the 2005 Booz Allen Classic. Earlier this year, he began working with Stan Utley, a one-time PGA TOUR winner and three-time Nationwide Tour champion, who has become a putting guru on TOUR, most notably helping Champions Tour star

Jay Haas refine his putting stroke.

"The main idea was to get back to the way I used to putt, like 10-12 years ago when I was a good putter," Garcia said. "We try not to get too technical. Just get back to like it was back in the past – as free as possible and as nice as possible."

This week Garcia is putting with a regular-length Titleist Scotty Cameron putter, similar to the version he used in 2000 when he finished a career-best tied for fourth in Putting Average on TOUR.

Elkington Positioned Well for Third Title

Two-time PLAYERS champion Steve Elkington is tied for fourth going into today's second round after a 3-under-par 69. It is the best position he's been in since 1997, when he was the first-round leader and went on to win. The only other time the Australian was in the top five after the first round came in 1991, the year of his first PLAYERS Championship title.

"I've been playing pretty well," said Elkington, 45, who has recorded three top-10s this season. "I haven't scared anybody, but I'm playing OK."

Elkington was in the spotlight for a second consecutive day. On Wednesday night, a portrait was unveiled in the clubhouse recognizing his two PLAYERS victories.

THE HOLE STORY How the Rules Committee Sets the Course

When it comes to the placement of the holes on the greens for the four rounds of THE PLAYERS Championship, the responsibility falls to PGA TOUR Rules Officials John Mutch and Robby Ware, part of the 10-person Rules Committee on site this week. Assisting the TOUR's Rule Officials are eight other men, representing the PGA European TOUR, the Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, the Canadian Tour, the Southern Africa Tour, the Japan Golf Tour Organization, the PGA of America and the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

But the man in charge this week is Mark Russell, the Tournament Director, who is working his 26th consecutive PLAYERS.

"Our direction from the Policy Board is to make this golf course difficult but fair, and that's what we've done," Russell said. "We try to do everything we can to give the players firm and fast conditions."

As for where the hole locations will be during the tournament rounds, that job falls to Mutch, in charge of the front nine, and Ware, who is responsible for holes 10 through 18. "These greens give up more than four good hole placements," Russell said, "so it's John and Robby's job to find the best places. Those two guys talk all the time, and they compare notes. They've done this before at THE PLAYERS, and they're very good at their jobs."

At 6:15 Thursday morning, Mutch and Ware went out with the TPC Sawgrass maintenance staff and supervised as the crew cut the 18 holes on the spots Mutch and Ware selected. That was the continuation of coordination between the Rules Committee and the maintenance staff, which is led by Superintendent Fred Klauk. That began in the weeks leading into the tournament to determine things such as the height of the rough and green speed. The two Rules Officials also took out their spray-paint cans on Thursday morning to mark dots on the green for Friday's pin placements. They'll repeat this exercise early Saturday morning for the weekend rounds.

"These greens will be as fast as last year, maybe a little faster," Russell eplained. "And, as usual, the greens are in great condition."

Now it's just up to the players to make their putts once they're on the green.

The Stimpmeter is a ramp invented n 1936 by Edward S. Stimpson that measures green speed based on the distance in feet the ball rolls. This week the greens are measured at 12 feet on the Stimpmeter.

Rules Official Robby Ware (left) watches as a TPC Sawgrass maintenance worker cuts a hole just prior to the beginning of the first round.

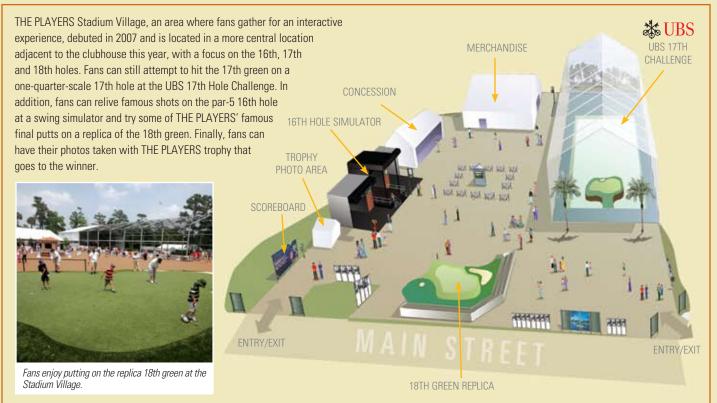

The crew is up early to make sure the greens offer smooth and even putting surfaces.

THE STADIUM VILLAGE

World Golf Hall of Fame Features Nicklaus Exhibit

Through December 2008, guests can revel in the stories behind Jack Nicklaus, one of golf's most treasured legends and the 2008 recipient of the PGA TOUR's Lifetime Achievement Award, at the World Golf Hall of Fame. Just a short drive from TPC Sawgrass, the Hall's feature exhibit, "Jack Nicklaus: Golf's Golden Champion," is the latest memberfocused exhibition and spotlights Nicklaus' extensive career and life through a comprehensive collection of personal and professional memorabilia, photographs and video. The exhibition was created in collaboration with the Jack Nicklaus Museum and The Ohio State University in addition to support from Jack and Barbara Nicklaus and the Nicklaus Companies.

Guests to THE PLAYERS can also get a taste of the World Golf Hall of Fame in the tournament's Welcome Pavilion, located near the tournament entrance. The pavilion illustrates the story of THE PLAYERS itself, as well as the Hall of Fame, its members and its annual induction ceremony.

In addition, St. Johns County, home of THE PLAYERS and the World Golf Hall of Fame, is highlighted with stories and images of its tremendous golf, beaches and the historic town of St. Augustine. The World Golf Hall of Fame is located at World Golf Village off Interstate 95 at exit 323. The museum is open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday noon to 6 p.m. For more information or to book a vacation package to World Golf Village, call (800) WGV-GOLF or visit wgv.com.

Approximately 2,000 volunteers will be on hand this week to support THE PLAYERS Championship. This group (clad in green golf shirts) plays a vital role in running all aspects of the tournament. Ron Natherson represents these volunteers as the Tournament Chairman this year. In addition, approximately 160 PGA TOUR employees will be on the grounds to serve as Ambassadors, directing spectators around the course. They can be identified by their blue golf shirts and caps.

2008 marks the second year of the FedExCup, a season-long points competition, consisting of the Regular Season and four Playoff events, all culminating with the crowning of the FedExCup champion. As players and fans saw last year, the FedExCup makes each week, including the THE PLAYERS Championship, critical for PGA TOUR players to ensure themselves a good seeding for the Playoffs and a better chance to take home the FedExCup trophy in September.

Players this week will be competing for a total of 27,500 points. First place in the THE PLAYERS is worth 4,950 points, and the winner will have a significant advantage in the FedExCup standings. Tune in all season long to see who will be next to win the FedExCup.

THANKS FOR MAKING THIS MORE THAN A GAME.

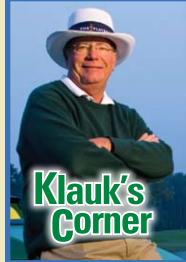

More than 100 local charities – including The First Tee, which teaches life skills through the game of golf – benefit from the support of our Proud Partners:

FRIDAY • MAY 9, 2008

Fred Klauk, course superintendent at TPC Sawgrass, has been affiliated with THE PLAYERS Championship since coming to Ponte Vedra Beach, in 1986 from the same position at TPC Eagle Trace in Coral Springs, FL. This year will mark his 23rd and final PLAYERS preparing the course as Klauk will retire after more than 35 years in golf- course maintenance. Klauk will be succeeded by Tom Vlach. Klauk sat down recently to discuss his tenure:

Biggest alligator?

I hooked one on a fishing line about 10 years ago. We got a permit to get one out of the lake on 18. The gator was in the middle of the pond, and we couldn't get him to eat the bait we set out. So I cast a line out, snagged him and fought him for 45 minutes. He weighed 440 pounds and was 10 or 11 feet long. Our rule for gators on site is if I drive right up in my cart and the gator doesn't move or jump in the water, he is probably too used to the vehicles or people. There's one in 17 pond now, but he's only 6 or 7 feet long – not very big.

THE PLAYERS Championship Charities Funk's Punks Hold J.T. Benefit

The J.T. Townsend Foundation will benefit from a Funk's Punks fundraiser tonight, beginning at 6 p.m., at Bogey Grille, 150 Village Circle, just outside of the front gates of TPC Sawgrass on A1A.

The Foundation was created to offset the financial needs of J.T. Townsend, a 2004 Episcopal High football player who suffered a severe spinal cord injury while making a tackle during a game.

Fred Funk and J.T. are expected to arrive around 7 p.m. (based on Fred's play schedule). Festivities include live and silent auction bidding and food from area restaurants and various refreshments.

Stadium TV, Satellite Radio

For the first time, fans at THE PLAYERS can rent a hand-held Stadium TV set and stay tuned to what is happening on site at THE PLAYERS Stadium Course. Stadium TV enables fans to watch the live broadcast and navigate between the additional video channels, course maps, individual hole layouts and player updates. The cost is $25 daily, $45 for the weekend and $75 for four days, and they are available

The Birdies for Charity program annually leads up to THE PLAYERS Championship and allows the community to support local charities through tracking the exciting, high-level of play during the tournament. Similar to a walk-a-thon, Birdies for Charity participants make a pledge to a local organization for each birdie made by professional golfers during THE PLAYERS. A record 51 local organizations are participating this year, up from 42 in 2007 and a strong indication that the generosity of First Coast residents will allow for a record fundraising effort. A previous press release is attached for reference/more information on the program.
